Inspired and adapted from the "Song of Songs"

You touched my soul from a life long ago
And our hearts said "its you", before we talked
You've come my angel, to walk along with me
And you are sweeter than honey from the rock

Your sweet loving is better than wine
I drink your passion on the vine
Before the day breathes
And night's shadows are gone
We'll taste of two becoming one

Lay on your hands and the pain fades away
Divine flow comes moving through your touch
You came through when others could not
For you are sweeter than honey from the rock

I know there's others who have been here before
But I have opened up the door
Let's walk together and mend the broken shards
And heal the worlds inside our hearts

Come my beloved, let us go out to the fields
There I will give you of my love
Soul to soul we will drink from GOD's heaven
For you are sweeter than honey from the rock

Sweeter than honey from the rock... (repeat and fade)
