It is up to us to hal - low cre - a - tion, to re - spond to life with the full - ness of our lives . It is up to us to meet the world, to em - brace the whole e - ven as we wres - tle with its parts. It is up to us to re - pair the world, and to bind our lives to truth.
There - fore we bend the knee and shake off the stiff - ness that keeps us from the sub - tle gra - ces of life and the sup - ple ges - tures of love. With re - ver - ence and thanks gi - ving , we ac - cept our des - ti - ny and set for our selves the task of re - demp - tion.
It is up to us.
