

Mishaneh HaBri'ot © Joanie Calem Feb 1, 2021

From Talmud Bavli/Brachot/Noah B'

Intro: Am – Em – F – G (2x picked)

Am Em Am Em Am Em F G
Baruch, brucha, adonai, yah, mishaneh, mishanah habri'ot.

Am Em Am Em Am Em Am
Baruch, brucha, adonai, yah, mishaneh, mishanah habri'ot.
C d C/e G F Am

What a world, what a world, full of wonder and beauty

C G F G
What a world, what a world, full of wonder and change

C G F Am
What a world, what a world, full of wonder and difference
F/c G/b Am/a

Where we were never even meant to be the same....

Am Em Am Em Am Em F G
Baruch, brucha, adonai, yah, mishaneh, mishanah habri'ot.

Am Em Am Em Am Em Am
Baruch, brucha, adonai, yah, mishaneh, mishanah habri'ot.
C G F Am

What a world, what a world, full of every different color

C G F G

What a world, what a world, full of every different shape

C G F Am

What a world, what a world, full of every kind of thinking

F/c G/b Am/a

Where we were never even meant to be the same....

Bridge

F/c b a g C/e F C
Now the history of this blessing was to point out something strange
F C G/d

To acknowledge when we felt surprise

F C F C
To remind us that all creation is not supposed to be the same
F C G/g

That variety brings beauty to our lives....

Am Em Am Em Am Em F G
Baruch, brucha, adonai, yah, mishaneh, mishanah habri'ot.

Am Em Am Em Am Em Am
Baruch, brucha, adonai, yah, mishaneh, mishanah habri'ot.
C G F Am

What a world, what a world, full of mystery and questions

C G F G
What a world, what a world, full of mystery and pain
C G F Am

What a world, what a world, full of mystery and learning

F/c G/b Am/d e

Where we were never even meant to be the same....