

Hayom, hayom, hayom... ("Today, today, today...")

Give us courage, give us strength
Give us blessings in our days
Give us goodness, give us light,
Give us peace throughout our nights
Give us patience, give us change,
Give us justice, give us rage,
Give us safety, give us hope,
Give us what we need to cope

Give us freedom, give us space,
Give us steadiness of pace,
Give us progress, give us growth,
Give us memories in our bones
Give us passion, give us prayer
Give us water, give us air
Give us sustenance and food
Give us what we need to move

Give us levity and joy,
Give us treasures, give us toys,
Give us wishes, give us work
Give us healing for our hurts
Give us methods, give us prowess
Give us skill to confront the powers
Give us movement and resolve
Give us the world we're dreaming of
